

MGC Day 2018 - Sunday 1st July

Fawley Hill – Henley on Thames

As it says on their website: <http://fawleyhill.co.uk>

Once described by Country Life magazine as ‘the most bonkers estate in Britain’, it is home to a restored Victorian railway station, the steepest standard gauge railway track in the world, a railway museum and over 20 species of animal.

Arrival from 10.00 – with prize giving at 3.30.

Cars from the Jaguar Drivers Club also on show.

Access to the grounds, museum, train rides, animal sanctuary (may be subject to change).

Café on site – or feel free to bring picnics.

Part of entry fee goes to Fawley Hill’s animal charity.
