Incident: Include evidence from, competitor interviews, written reports, race log and where available circuit/in car video footage

At 10.01, Race Control received a communication from Chief Scrutineer to Black Flag Car 27, shortly after it left the pit lane, having started Qualifying from the Pit Lane.

The Black Flag and car number were displayed at the startline marshal's post x 5 laps but the driver of car 27 ignored the flag .

The car was stopped on entering the pit lane at the end of qualifying and told remain in the car and firstly to report to the Chief Scrutineer and then to the Race Clerk.

Prior to the Race Clerk, Michael Ashcroft Lic No 1404, interviewing the driver, the Chief Scrutineer, Mr Chris Mount, came to Race Control and advised the Clerk that the reason he wanted the car Black Flagged was due to a serious safety issue with the use of the seat belt which had been incorrectly located through the seat frame.

The Clerk interviewed the driver and asked him to explain why he had not responded to the Black Flag. The driver said he did see the Black Flag but could not see the number and could provide no explanation for this.
